ANNOUNCING A SCHOLARS PROGRAM IN CSD

JFEW SCHOLARS PROGRAM
IN COMMUNICATION SCIENCES AND DISORDERS (CSD)
AT QUEENS COLLEGE

JFEW SCHOLARS PROGRAM OFFERS:

- Scholarship Funds for Tuition & Educational Expenses – up to $3500 a year for two years
- Funds to Supplement a Summer Internship in CSD - $3500 maximum
- Funds to Attend a Local Professional Conference in CSD
- Seminars with Professionals Working in the Field of CSD

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

JFEW Scholars Program is open to all CSD majors except Macaulay Honors recipients

An applicant must:

a. Have four semesters remaining of undergraduate coursework
b. Have a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0
c. Be a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident of the U.S.
d. Demonstrate a strong connection to New York City
e. Have financial need (as verified by 2017-18 FAFSA)
f. Have a demonstrated interest in pursuing a career in the area of communication disorders
g. Be available for a summer internship

The JFEW Scholars Program in CSD will begin September 2017.
20 applicants will be selected to participate in the Scholars Program.

Applications will be accepted from 3/13/17 – 4/21/17.
Applications are available in the Queens College Speech-Language-Hearing Center (Gertz Building), Queens Hall Room 301A and online at qc.cuny.edu/lcd (select BA in Communication Sciences and Disorders from the Undergraduate Programs list).

Please direct any inquiries to: qcjfewscholars15@gmail.com

The Jewish Foundation for Education of Women (JFEW) is a New York City-based nonsectarian organization that helps women with financial need meet their education and career goals through scholarships, opportunities for professional development and other supportive services. In partnership with schools and nonprofits, JFEW fosters a community of women dedicated to education, professional achievement and contributing to society.

DON'T MISS THIS AMAZING OPPORTUNITY!