3. Approval of Minutes:

   MOTION: Duly made, seconded, and passed:
   "To adopt the Academic Senate meeting minutes of April 14, 2005."

4. Announcements, Administrative Reports, and Memorials:

   a. Professor Dean Savage addressed the Senate in an effort to spark interest in the University Faculty Senate and to explain the importance of an active and committed delegation from QC. He stated the real topic is shared governance, which requires constant faculty effort to achieve. There are 120 members of the UFS; they have seven meetings a year, usually held at the Graduate Center, with a speaker, possibly the Chancellor or a Vice Chancellor. They deal with initiatives that affect all campuses and cannot be dealt with by the point of view of this campus alone. Prof. Savage spoke of other committee opportunities within the UFS that are in need of Queens College participation. There were no questions.

5. Committee Reports:

   a. Undergraduate Scholastic Standards Committee (Lloyd):
