SUMMER 2018 GRADUATES & PROGRAM COMPLETERS

Congratulations on completing a Queens College Education Program that leads to New York State Certification. Graduation or completion of an education program is not enough to become certified by the New York State Department of Education. You will need to be recommended for certification through the Teacher Certification Office and apply online on the NYSED TEACH System. Please apply for graduation by July 1st on the CUNYFirst system, whether you are completing a Degree or an Advanced Certificate Program.

Please submit an INSTITUTIONAL RECOMMENDATION REQUEST FORM (click link) along with copies of the required seminars.

Seminars required for Queens College Institutional Recommendation:

For Initial or Provisional Certification
1) Copy of the Child Abuse Seminar
2) Copy of the School Violence Seminar
3) Copy of the DASA (Dignity for All Students Act) Seminar
4) Copy of the School Safety Seminar
5) Copy of the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Seminar
   o Counselor Education students may substitute course ECPCE 802 - Special Issues in School Counseling for the Alcohol & Drug Abuse Seminar.

Students applying for a Professional Certification, Permanent Certification, or an Additional Certification (Previously completed an Approved Teacher Preparation Program and holds a valid NYS certificate), must have completed the DASA seminar. *Students in a Post Masters Special Ed Program are required to take the Autism seminar.
