Do you want to work as a certified school psychologist?

Are you committed to working with culturally and linguistically diverse students with disabilities?

Our program is recruiting 15 select graduate students for a grant supported program

ATTEND AN OPEN HOUSE AT QUEENS COLLEGE

November 6th, 2013, 12:15pm to 1:30pm, Powdermaker Hall 034
November 6th, 2013, 6:00pm to 8:00pm, Powdermaker Hall 045
November 19th, 2013, 12:15pm to 1:30pm, Powdermaker Hall 010
November 19th, 2013, 6:00pm to 8:00pm Room, Powdermaker Hall 045

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE OPEN HOUSE CONTACT:

Sarah Birch
Project Coordinator
sarah.birch@qc.cuny.edu

Graduate students who are accepted into this grant supported program will receive:

- Specialized 4 year training program that includes multicultural courses and field work experiences (2014-2018)
- Funding for tuition and student fees
- Monthly stipend for expenses (e.g., travel, books)
- Funding to travel to the annual National Association of School Psychologists conference ($1,000 annually)
- Paid membership to the National Association of School Psychologists
- Free summer institute every year
- Additional supports in the form of faculty mentoring, peer mentoring, academic and non-academic supports (e.g., individual advisement, monthly support group meetings)

*The CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE PRACTICES IN SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY: PRESCHOOL TO HIGH SCHOOL project is funded by the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services, United States Department of Education. Individuals who receive scholarships are required to sign a service obligation agreement stating that they will repay the costs of this assistance by providing two years of full-time employment for each year that they receive scholarship assistance (i.e., 4 years of academic support = 8 years of full-time service).