MAT in Critical Languages Education

NYS Certification in Korean, Chinese, Hindi, Urdu, Arabic, and Russian 7-12 grade

This 39 credit graduate program certifies you to teach Korean in NYS public schools grades 7-12.

24 credits for initial certification. 15 credits for the MAT leading to professional NYS certification.

Admissions requirements

1) Applicants must have a Bachelors degree from an accredited college or university, with scores of at least Advanced Low on both the full telephonic Oral Proficiency Interview and Writing Proficiency Test (OPI and WPT) in the Critical Language(s). These scores are used in lieu of the content area language credits as per the NYSED website and ACTFL. http://www.highered.nysed.gov/tcert/actfl.html

These scores are required for admissions and certification at Queens College. Applicants must register for the OPI and WPT at: www.languagetesting.com.

2) At least 3.0 undergraduate or graduate GPA.

3) Admissions essay.

4) Three letters of recommendation.

5) GRE exam. No minimum score required.

6) TOEFL if Bachelors was awarded outside of the United States

Initial Certification coursework: 24 credits in 3 semesters plus state exams and required workshops.

Spring: Educational Foundations, Language, Literacy and Culture, Methods of teaching World Language

Fall: Initial Clinical Experience in Middle School 100 Hours, Curriculum and Assessment of World Languages, Educational Psychology, Foundations in Special Education

Spring: Student teaching in the High School: 5 days/week.

MAT coursework: 15 credits

Graduate Curriculum Design  Research I  Research II  Two Selected Topics courses

For more information contact: Graduate Admissions Queens College: 718-997-5204.

To expedite process to start Spring 2018, apply ASAP to the Post Bac Advanced Certificate 7-12 French.

After applying to QC, call to register for courses at Secondary Education and Youth Services: 718-997-5150. Register for SEYS 536, 564, 700.