Course Selection and Registration Options!

- Review the Queens College Degree.

- Identify and list possible course options for registration based on General Education requirements.

- Identify possible majors of interest and review the department websites.
  - Pay close attention to the requirements and introductory course options.
  - Review course descriptions.

- Consider other general interests and subject matter. Identify related introductory-level courses as exploratory options.