

The Long Struggle

Rising against Oppression through Education,
Culture, and Building Bridges for a Brighter Future

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 2012

EXHIBIT

History of Black Films of the Early 20th Century

Queens College, CUNY and
Reconstruct Art Organization and Public
Announcement present *African American
Filmmaker Oscar Micheaux*

Wednesday, February 1
10 am–2 pm, 6–8 pm
Rosenthal 230 & Lobby

LECTURE

The Education of Malcolm X: With Reflections from John Dewey

Presented by Professors Rikki Asher and Magnus Bassey, Secondary Education &
Youth Services

Wednesday, February 1
12:15–1:30 pm (Free Hour)
Rosenthal 230

FILM

Murder of Fred Hampton

Cosponsored by ALAS (Alliance of Latin
American Students)

Monday, February 6
12:15–1:30 pm (Free Hour)
Dining Hall, Patio Room

LECTURE

A Moment with Carolyn Peck, Sports Analyst of ESPN

Tuesday, February 7
5–7 pm • Rosenthal 230

EXHIBIT

History of Black Films of the Early 20th Century

Cosponsored by Queens College, CUNY
and Reconstruct Art Organization and
Public Announcement

Wednesday, February 8
10 am–2 pm, 6–8 pm
Rosenthal 230 & Lobby

LECTURE

Haiti: The Earthquake & Its Aftermath

Professor Francois Pierre-Louis,
Political Science

Cosponsored by ALAS (Alliance of Latin
American Students) and HSA (Haitian
Students Assn.)

Wednesday, February 15
12:15–1:30 pm (Free Hour)
Campbell Dome

PERFORMANCE

Milestone Negro Spirituals Until the Civil War: When Folk Songs Bring Freedom

Jazz expressionist Hilliard Greene

Thursday, February 16
5–6:30 pm • Goldstein Theatre

FILM

Roots

Cosponsored by the Progressive Black
Student Assn.

Tuesday, February 21
7–10 pm • Student Union 301

DOCUMENTARY/LECTURE

Second Chance: The History of the SEEK Program at CUNY

Frank Franklin, Director, SEEK Program

Wednesday, February 22
12:15–1:30 pm (Free Hour)
Rosenthal 230

SEMINAR

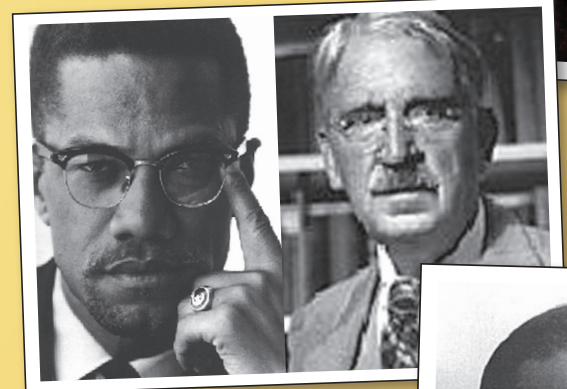

Oppression of Blacks in America

Speakers:

Carlitos Rovira, former member,
Young Lords; “Shep,” former member,
Black Panthers

Sponsored by ALAS (Alliance of Latin
American Students)

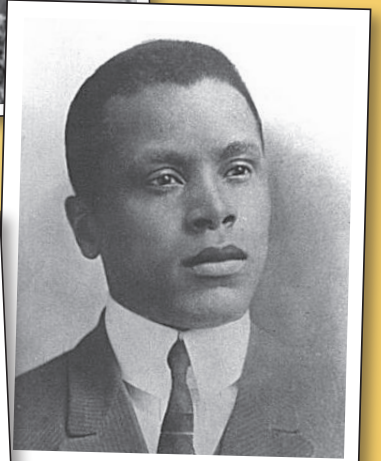

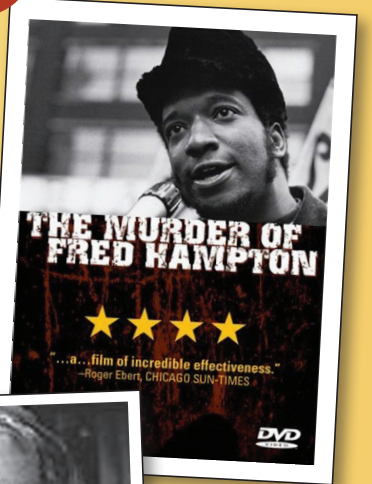

Thursday, February 23
7–10 pm • Dining Hall, Patio Room

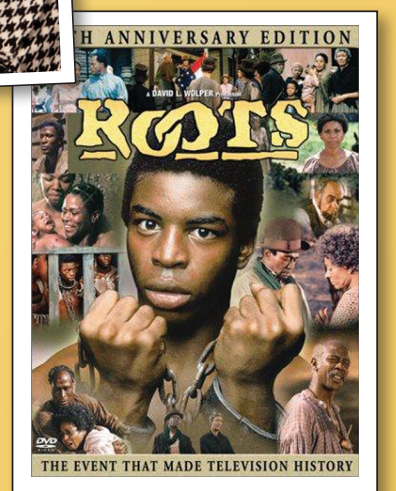

Malcolm X and John Dewey

Carolyn Peck

Oscar Micheaux

LATINO CULTURAL EVENT

Africa's Contribution to Latinos' Cultures

Hosted by Phi Iota Alpha, presented by student Carlos S. Viteri

Tuesday, February 28
6–9 pm • Dining Hall, Patio Room

EXHIBIT

History of Black Films of the Early 20th Century

Cosponsored by Queens College, CUNY
and Reconstruct Art Organization and
Public Announcement

Wednesday, February 29
12:15–1:30 pm (Free Hour)
Campbell Dome

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE COSPONSORS OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH EVENTS:

The Africana Studies Program, SEEK Program, Student Minority Affairs, Athletics, Secondary Education & Youth Services Dept., the Progressive Black Student Assn. (PBSA), the Alliance of Latin American Students (ALAS), Urban Studies Dept., the Aaron Copland School of Music, Godwin-Ternbach Museum, and Queens College Libraries Civil Rights Archives.