DESCRIPTIONS/STRATEGIES

PUBLIC WELFARE
Public welfare is designed to provide services and support for poor, disabled, ill, elderly, or juvenile clients. Volunteer at homeless shelters, soup kitchens, battered women homes, literacy programs, or other social service agencies to get experience.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE/CORRECTIONS
Social workers in corrections focus on rehabilitation of clients. Obtain experience by volunteering at a corrections facility or victims program such as a rape crisis center.

SCHOOL SOCIAL WORK
School systems may employ social workers to help students cope with/resolve emotional, developmental, or educational difficulties. Gain experience with children at daycare centers, camps, or Scouts.

CHILD WELFARE
Child welfare social workers strive to ensure the safety and well-being of children through treatment of the whole family. Volunteer at daycares, child shelters, camps, YMCA, Scouts, or other agencies that aid youth.

GERONTOLOGY
Gerontology involves working with older adults, healthy or ill, and their families. Get involved with programs/organizations designed for senior citizens.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) prepares individuals for entry-level direct practice.
- Master of Social Work (MSW) is necessary to provide therapy and for advancement to supervisory/administrative positions.
- Doctorate in Social Work (DSW) or Ph.D. usually required for positions in teaching, research, and administration. Desirable for some clinical positions and private practice.
- Must complete a degree from a college or university program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. Programs include practical field experience.
- Most states require licensure, certification or registration.

- The field practicum is used to determine suitability for this profession and to provide exposure to various practice settings/clients.
- Candidates should possess empathy for others, an appreciation for diversity and an interest in social change.
- Social workers serve a range of client systems (individuals, families, groups, communities) as they attempt to enhance social functioning.
- Social work is unique given its dual focus on the person and the environment.

- Note: A large amount of this information was adapted from Choices: Careers in Social Work by the National Association of Social Workers.
