Tenure and CCE approved during this cycle will be effective September 1, 2018. Promotions approved during this cycle will be effective Monday, August 27, 2018.

Departments with full-time faculty, College Laboratory Technicians (CLTs) and Lecturers who are eligible for Tenure, Promotion or CCE to be effective as referenced above: Advise all candidates to update their curriculum vitae to incorporate all significant scholarly achievements.

Recommendations for Tenure, Promotion or CCE will be reviewed by the Departmental Personnel and Budget (P&B) Committee, the Divisional Advisory Committee, the CLT Screening Committee (in the case of CLTs), the Sub-Committee on Tenure, CCE, and Promotion (the “Committee of Seven”), the College-wide P&B and the President. This review structure also applies to candidates eligible for Promotion in the Spring semester.

The review schedule for the Fall is as follows:

By Friday, September 08, 2017—Departmental P&B Committees will have:
• Reviewed the credentials of all persons eligible for Tenure, Promotion or CCE, and informed the candidates and the respective divisional dean of their recommendations.
• For those candidates recommended for Tenure, Promotion or CCE - sent their divisional dean completed versions of the Cover Page and Departmental Report (Formerly “Form A”) and the Candidate’s Curriculum Vitae and Personal Statement (Formerly “Form B”). “Completed Versions” mean: one printed copy of these forms, including the cover page, candidate’s curriculum vitae, personal statement; workload data; Departmental P&B report; chair’s report; information on external reviewers; and external reviewers’ letters plus electronic transmission of the above plus, digital version of as much material from the candidate’s box as possible. Links may also be provided to the candidates’ web sites which contain supporting materials.
• For those candidates not recommended for Tenure, Promotion or CCE – inform them of the decision of the departmental P&B and initiate the process of appeal.

The information is outlined here: http://www.qc.cuny.edu/about/administration/Provost/FacultyStaff/Pages/Full-time.aspx.

By Friday, September 15, 2017:
• Departments will have forwarded to their divisional dean the complete set of materials (as outlined above and in the link) for the candidates who are without their department’s affirmative recommendation (WDAR).
• Divisional deans will have forwarded to Reprographics (with a request for 12 copies) the complete set of materials for the recommended candidates.

By Tuesday, September 19, 2017:
• Divisional deans will have forwarded to Reprographics complete materials of WDAR candidates.
• Reprographics will have delivered all required materials of the recommended candidates to the divisional deans, the Provost, and the departments.

By Wednesday, September 27, 2017:
• Departments will have forwarded to their divisional dean the personal files and all supporting materials, including the doctoral dissertation and publications, of all candidates: recommended and WDAR.
• Reprographics will have delivered all required materials of WDAR candidates to the divisional deans, the Provost, and the departments.

Monday, October 2 – Friday, October 6, 2017: Study, screening, and rating of Tenure, Promotion and CCE cases by divisional advisory committees.

By Friday, October 6, 2017: Divisional deans will have forwarded to the Provost all divisional ratings, personal files, and supporting materials.

Tuesday, October 10–Friday, October 20, 2017: Review of all materials associated with Tenure, Promotion and CCE cases by Committee of Seven members.

Monday, October 23 – Friday, October 27, 2017: Meetings of the Committee of Seven with academic deans.

By Wednesday, November 1, 2017: The College-wide P&B is notified of the recommendations made by the Committee of Seven.

Wednesday, November 15, 2017: The College-wide P&B votes on Tenure, Promotion and CCE.