

Queens College, City University of New York
Department of Educational and Community Programs
Graduate Programs in Special Education

Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) Program Application***

Name: _____ Advisor: _____

Address: _____

_____
_____

Phone #: (Home) _____ (Cell) _____

EMAIL Address (PLEASE PRINT):

_____

Your Program & Certification Area (Please check one):

Master's Program:

_____ Early Childhood [565]                      _____ Childhood [566]

_____ Adolescent [567]

_____ MAT Dual Certification (Childhood [596])

What courses are you currently enrolled in at QC?

What was your undergraduate GPA?

* Please note that the Special Education Program is currently ONLY a BCBA track and does not lead to LBA credential in New York – more information will be provided at the interview

Describe your current title, classroom, students and their disabilities, and the school in which you teach.

Please attach a 500-word essay detailing your professional goals and why you are seeking the BCBA certification.

Please return everything to Ms. Jaclyn Arroyo (Jaclyn.arroyo@qc.cuny.edu).
Thank you!

* Please note that the Special Education Program is currently ONLY a BCBA track and does not lead to LBA credential in New York – more information will be provided at the interview