FOR STUDENTS WHO ARE NOT MEETING TITLE IV/ FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS STANDARDS

The Federal Government requires colleges to measure students’ progress toward their degrees for the determination of eligibility for Title IV Federal Aid. Students who do not make satisfactory academic progress (SAP) in accordance with the Title IV Federal financial aid standards are ineligible for Federal financial aid. Federal Financial aid also known as Title IV aid includes Federal Direct Student Loans, PELL, SEOG, Federal Work Study, and Federal Perkins Loans.

IF YOU DO NOT INTEND TO APPLY FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID FOR THE 2015-2016 ACADEMIC YEAR, PLEASE DISREGARD THIS NOTICE.

Our records indicate that you have not met the requirements for Federal SAP for the academic year 2015-2016. If you are not a Federal aid recipient disregard this notice. If you intend to complete the application for Federal student aid, you may NOT receive any federal funds until you regain your eligibility.

If you enroll in Queens College during the 2015-2016 academic year, we will evaluate your record again in June, 2016. You may regain your Title IV SAP eligibility for the following year if you meet the Title IV standards at that time.

Any student who has lost his/her Federal SAP eligibility is allowed to appeal his/her status. A waiver of the requirements may be granted if your failure to make satisfactory progress is due to an unusual or extraordinary situation, such as a serious illness or a death in your immediate family.

Undergraduates who wish to apply for a waiver may go to either the One Stop Service Center in the Dining Hall 128 or the Counseling and Resource Center, 1st floor Frese Hall as soon as possible to pick up a waiver appeal packet. The completed packet must be submitted to the Counseling and Resource Center within one month of receiving this notice. Title IV Waiver Appeal Instructions

Graduate students should contact Mr. Mario Caruso, Director of Graduate Admissions, Jefferson Hall 105, by email at Mario.Caruso@qc.cuny.edu.

Students who choose to remain enrolled without the receipt of Federal financial aid may request a review of their academic records after the Fall, 2015 term. A determination of eligibility will be made at that time. If the standards are met, eligibility is regained for the following Spring, 2016 and retroactive to the previous semester.
