

2021-2022 DEPENDENCY OVERRIDE FORM

Students who do not meet the federal criteria to be considered independent based on the 2021-2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may submit this form with supporting documentation for review to determine if unusual circumstances exist for granting a dependency status override. Dependency overrides are reviewed on a case-by-case basis for students with extraneous circumstances and are evaluated each award year.

The following are circumstances that will NOT be considered:

- Parent(s) refusal to contribute to the student's education;
- Parent(s) did not claim student on their tax returns;
- Parent(s) unwillingness to provide information on the FAFSA;
- Student demonstrates total financial self – sufficiency.

PLEASE CHECK THE BOX THAT BEST DESCRIBES YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES.

- A severe situation exists in your family which prevents you from obtaining your parents' information such as abandonment, physical/mental abuse, parental drug or alcohol abuse or any other extraneous circumstances beyond your control.

Documents required for the review:Personal Statement by Student

- Please submit a typed personal statement thoroughly detailing your circumstances. Your statement must include:
 - The last date you had any form of contact with your parents as well as the nature of that contact,
 - Your parents' location and
 - Explain how you have been supporting yourself.

Third Party statement from a Professional

- Please attach a letter from a third party (e.g. Social Worker, Teacher or Clergy Member) explaining your circumstances and knowledge concerning your relationship with your parents. (Letter must be typed on a letterhead and cannot be from a friend or relative.)

2019 Tax Return Transcript

You can either request a transcript online by visiting <https://www.irs.gov/Individuals/Get-Transcript> or by calling (800)908-9946.

- You are a political refugee or have political asylum, and your parents do not reside in the United States and are unable to provide parental information because of long-standing political policy or civil unrest in that country that prevents mail or funds from passing between you and your parents.

Documents required for the review:

Personal Statement by Student

- Please submit a typewritten letter detailing why you should be considered an independent student. Please describe the situation where your parent(s) live that prevents mail or funds from entering or leaving that country. If you are receiving support from friends or relatives, you must describe the nature of that support and how you came to receive it. If you are self-supporting, explain how you came to support yourself, and the period of time you have done this.

Documentation

- Provide a statement from an embassy official (or other diplomatic office) of the country where your parent(s) live or from an appropriate refugee agency that describes the long-standing political policy or civil unrest that exists there. The statement must confirm that it is impossible to get mail or funds in or out of the country. The statement must be signed and typed on original agency letterhead.

Note: You must first complete your 2021-2022 FAFSA before you can submit a dependency override. You may also attach any additional documents which may demonstrate your need for this override.
