

Advisory Committee on Campus Security

Under the Education Law Section, 6450 (A), the committee is charged with the review of current campus security protocols, and making recommendations for their improvement.

The Q.C. committee is comprised of nine members, three each from students, faculty and college administrators. Fifty percent of whom must be women.