Calling All Students on Campus!

Are you aware of the Queens College Archives?

Now is your chance to learn more. Come to our Open House!

When: Thursday May 12th 4:00pm to 7:00pm (Stop by any time during this time period!)
Where: President's Conference Room 2 on the 5th floor of Rosenthal Library
For More Info: Call 718-997-3650 or email QC.Archives@qc.cuny.edu.

Stop by to see artifacts, documents and images from the Special Collections and Archives of the Queens College Libraries. Graduate student fellows and staff will be on hand to share what they have learned about the materials in an informal open house setting. Come check out our Civil Rights, Performing Arts, and Rare Books Collections.

• Performing Arts Collections: Glossy press and publicity materials from the Broadway stage and the golden age of Hollywood.

• The James Forman Library: Forman was Executive Secretary of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), one of the most influential groups of the 1960s civil rights movement. On exhibit: FBI files he obtained through the Freedom of Information Act.

• The Robert Rygor Collection: Rygor became involved in the gay rights movement in 1974, served four terms as workspace manager for ACT-UP and became the first openly gay man to run for the state assembly in New York.

• Rare Books: New discoveries from the library’s collection of rare books from the 17th century.

Our goal is for these materials to be utilized by the campus community. Stop by to learn more and/or contact us for more info.
