The P/NC and unevaluated withdrawal period begins on Thursday, February 18, and ends on Sunday, March 28, at 11:59 pm.

P/NC INFORMATION

Before you decide to select the P/NC option, consider these facts:

- You may P/NC only one class a semester.
- No more than 21 P/NC credits may be applied toward the baccalaureate degree.
- You may not P/NC any courses in your major, ACE seminar courses, CESL courses, ENGL 095 or 110; MATH 110; or writing-intensive courses.
- If you earn a passing grade of A+ to D, you will earn a P grade and credit for the course. If you earn a failing grade (F), you will be assigned a grade of NC (no credit), which will not affect your GPA.
- Most graduate schools consider a P as a D grade.
- You may process your P/NC request online through eSIMS (and, if you change your mind, rescind/cancel it) only during the P/NC period, which ends on Sunday, March 28, 2010 at 11:59 pm.
- The P/NC period deadline will not be extended. Failing a course or missing the deadline to select the P/NC option will not be considered grounds for an appeal.

P/NC Option for Second-Semester Freshmen

If you are a second-semester freshman during the Spring 2010 semester, the P/NC option deadline will be extended to Friday, May 14, instead of Sunday, March 28, but you will be required to submit your request in person to the Registrar's Office after the standard P/NC option period instead of processing it online through eSIMS.

Student Obligations

After you have decided to use the P/NC option:

- You must (1) continue to attend class regularly; (2) complete all required assignments; and (3) take the final exam.
- Failure to fulfill these obligation may result in a grade of WU (unofficial withdrawal), which is not covered by the P/NC option.

WITHDRAWAL INFORMATION

Before you decide on whether or not to withdraw from a course, consider these facts:

- A grade of W indicates an official withdrawal from a course without grade penalty and does not affect your GPA.
- An unevaluated withdrawal may not be reversed once selected.
- An official withdrawal does not relieve you of your financial obligations for the course selected.
- When selecting the withdrawal option, you must enter the last date you attended the course.
About Financial Aid

Selecting the unevaluated withdrawal option may adversely affect your financial aid. It is strongly suggested that you check with the Financial Aid Office (Jefferson Hall 202) before making your decision.
