

AFRICAN STUDIES
	Evelyn Julmisse	Acting Director of the Africana Studies Program, J.D. CUNY Law, 1988: Africa & African American Caribbean issues.
ANTHROPOLOGY
	Kevin K. Birth	Professor, Ph.D., University of San Diego, 1993: Peoples of the Caribbean and cultural writing.
	John Collins	Associate Professor, Ph.D., University of Michigan, 2003: Semiotics, cultural heritage and development, historical anthropology, nationalism and the state, Brazil, the Andes, race in Latin America.
	Felicia Madimenos	Assistant Professor, Ph.D., University of Oregon, 2011: Market integration and health in South American indigenous peoples, human biology, female reproductive ecology, energetics.
	Ramona L. Perez	Instructor, Ph.D., New York University, 2009: Food habits, kinship and life history in the U.S. Mexico borderlands, urban curanderismo, food justice.
	Timothy Pugh	Associate Professor, Ph.D., Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, 2001: Maya architecture, spatial analysis, ritual, social memory, cultural contact.
	Juan Luis Rodriguez	Assistant Professor, Ph.D., Southern Illinois University, 2011: Linguistic Anthropology, Semiotics, Amazonian Ethnography, Politics, Gift Giving, Language and Materiality, Discourse Analysis Venezuela
COMPARATIVE LITERATURE

	Christopher Winks	Associate Professor, Ph.D., New York University. Comparative modernisms with particular emphasis on Caribbean and Latin America literature and African-American studies.
ECONOMICS
	Zadia Feliciano	Associate Professor, Ph.D., Harvard University. Labor Economics, International Economics, Economic History.
EDUCATION
	Lillian Moncada-Davidson	Associate Professor of Secondary Education & Youth Services, Ph.D., Columbia University, 1990: Sociology and Education.
	Jesse M. Vazquez	Professor and Chair of Educational & Community Programs, Ph.D., Columbia University, 1990: Sociology and Education.
HISPANIC LANGUAGES & LITERATURES
	Isabel Maria de Sena	Adjunct Professor
	Álvaro Fernández	Assistant Professor focused on Modern narratives
	Nora Glickman	Professor, Ph.D., New York University, 1978: Spanish and Latin American studies.
	Irma Llorens	Associate Professor, Ph.D. Princeton University, 1992: Spanish American literature, contemporary Spanish and Mexican short stories.
	José Miguel Martínez-Torrejón	Professor Ph.D., 1989, University of California, Santa Barbara. Iberian Culture and Literature, Peninsular and Colonial, political dimension of literary texts.
	Brais Outes-Leon	Assistant Professor, Ph.D., Yale University. Literary critic and academic specialized in the field of Latin American literature and Cultural History.

	Beatriz Carolina Peña	Assistant Professor, Ph.D. The Graduate School and University Center (CUNY). Colonial Latin American literature, iconography, and history, Spanish Golden Age, and nineteenth and twentieth centuries' Spanish American literature.
	Rafael Sanchez	Adjunct Professor ABD University of Puerto Rico Latin American Culture and theater.
	Mariana Zinni	Associate Professor, Ph.D. University of Pittsburgh Spanish with a specialization in Colonial Latin America.
HISTORY
	Gordon Barnes JR	Adjunct Professor
	Mary Gallagher	Adjunct Professor, Latin America, colonial & revolutionary period: History of Latin America to 1825.
LINGUISTICS & COMMUNICATION DISORDERS
	Eva M. Fernandez	Associate Professor, Director, Center for Teaching and Learning. Ph.D., 2000, CUNY Graduate Center. Bilingualism, psycholinguistics and instructional Technology.
	Elizabeth Ijalba	Assistant Professor, Principal Investigator, Bilingual Literacy Research Lab, Ph.D., 2007, CUNY Graduate Center, Communication disorders, Impact or bilingualism on disorders of communication and literacy.
POLITICAL SCIENCE
	Jorge A. Alves	Assistant Professor, Ph.D., Brown University: Comparative politics, specifically on issues of federalism, intergovernmental relations, state capacity construction and the political economy of development, with a regional focus on Latin American and Brazil.

	Judith Kimerling	Professor, J.D., Yale University, Environmental law and politics, law and implementation, international development and human rights, the politics of Amazon rain forest development, energy law and politics.
SOCIOLOGY
	Sujatha Fernandes	Associate Professor, Ph.D., University of Chicago, 2003: Hip hop culture; neoliberalism; state–society relations; urban public space; and the role of culture in social movements.
	Mauricio A. Font	Professor, Ph.D., University of Michigan, 1983: Sociology of Developing Countries.
	Carmenza L. Gallo	Associate Professor, Ph.D., Boston University, 1985: Sociology of Developing Countries.
	Anahi Viladrich	Associate Professor, Ph.D., Columbia University: Gender and reproductive health in Latin America, immigration, culture and health in the U.S. and abroad.