Bilingual Teacher Recruitment Information Session

The New York City Department of Education (DOE) will hold a teacher recruitment event at City College on Monday, April 23, 2012, from 5:00 - 7:00 pm. There are many openings in the upcoming school year, with even more expected in the future, for bilingual teachers in all subject areas and grade levels.

If you hold a Bilingual Extension, or if you are yourself bilingual, we hope you can attend this meeting. Information will be provided on the following topics:

- The role of bilingual teachers
- The job market for bilingual teachers in NYC schools
- How to find bilingual jobs
- How to complete the Bilingual Extension if you do not already hold one
- Opportunities to finance the Bilingual Extension

We will have time for a general Q&A, as well as various experts to answer different types of questions.

Space is limited! Please register here if you will attend.
