Global Studies Minor (Minor Code GLOBST-MIN)

Director:  William McClure

Office:    Dean of Arts and Humanities, Queens Hall 210
          718-997-5790 / wmcclure@qc.cuny.edu

As the world becomes more interconnected, Queens College is committed to infusing the curriculum with global perspective and preparing students to become leading citizens of our global society. The Queens College Global Studies Minor offers a unique interdisciplinary program designed to develop global competency in students by integrating global courses, language acquisition, an intercultural experience, and research into the traditional academic curriculum of the student’s degree program. It will provide students with diverse perspectives and practical skills necessary to thrive as active, engaged citizens in today’s dynamic international landscape. It can complement all academic majors, and help students become more successful graduates as they choose professions in our increasingly globalized economy.

Student benefits:

Knowledge:
Students gain Discipline-specific knowledge of global issues, processes, trends, and systems
Students demonstrate knowledge of their own culture as well as other cultures, countries, and regions

Skills:
Students can successfully navigate cultural and linguistic differences
Students are engaged in global issues, and play an active role as leaders on campus, in their communities, and beyond

Dispositions:
Students gain greater awareness of their own cultural identity and place in the world
Students gain understanding of social responsibility and what it means to serve others
