

Due to current circumstances and in efforts to protect the health and safety of our community, academic advisement appointments will be virtual* until the foreseeable future. This means that students will not be meeting in person with an advisor at this time.

Please download the new QC Navigate APP to schedule your virtual* advising appointment.

*Your advisor will then be in touch with you as to the mode of communication he/she will be using, which could be via phone, e-mail, or a platform such as Skype or Zoom.

FEATURES OF QC NAVIAGATE:

- Make an appointment with an advisor
- Get reminders and alerts about certain deadlines
- Register for classes with ease
- Make your own to-do list and set reminders
- Plan upcoming academic terms

APPOINTMENTS ARE FOR VIRTUAL ADVISING FOR CURRENTLY-ENROLLED STUDENTS.

If you are a new freshman or transfer starting in the Fall 2020 semester, you will be invited to attend a freshman or transfer advising session for incoming students. Please do not make an appointment here. You will receive an email invitation after you have been accepted, have submitted your commitment deposit, and have responded to your acceptance that you intend to enroll at Queens College.

To prepare for your virtual appointment:

1. Review your academic record on CUNYfirst and your DegreeWorks audit
2. Identify unfulfilled academic requirements and prepare a list of potential courses you are considering
3. Create a list of questions and concerns pertinent to your academic and professional goals

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation during this difficult time and it is our intention to continue to support you through your academic journey.

Phones and emails will soon be answered by staff working remotely.
