What do we do?

• As our 2017-2018 guest Justice Sonia Sotomayor said:
  “Lawyers at our best manage relationships between people.”

• We like to manage before there is a full blown dispute or problem.

• Hope this helps! You are strongly encouraged to call with any and all questions.

In No Particular Order
TEXT and EMAILS

They are not private.

They may be monitored/inspected/turned over to folks outside of CUNY in limited circumstances if certain procedures are followed.
  • Related to a lawsuit OR
  • Reasonable basis to believe CUNY policy or law is being violated OR
  • pursuant to the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL).

For more details, refer to CUNY Computer Use Policy
http://www.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/CIS/policies/ComputerUsePolicy.pdf
Because we text and use email all the time, we sometimes are very casual and say things in emails which we would never say to someone in person OR which don’t translate well when read aloud.

So...
As a wise law professor once said:

Never write in an email something that you would not be comfortable seeing enlarged on a video screen and read aloud in a courtroom.

Evaluations and Classroom Observations

• Take them seriously. Everyone can be evaluated and observed. Thorough, clear, and honest guidance gives colleagues an opportunity to improve their work performance.

• Double check on all requirements before you schedule these important events. If you don’t follow the rules, the observation or evaluation is invalid and will be removed from the faculty member’s file.
Some Evaluations and Classroom Observations Requirements

• Must give 24 hours’ notice before classroom observations.
• First observation must take place in the first 10 weeks of the semester.
• Class must be observed in its entirety.
• Only evaluator and evaluated can be in the evaluation conference.
• Don’t fill out form before evaluation conference.
• Must return the evaluation within 10 working days of the evaluation conference.
Three-Year Appointment of Adjuncts

• Evaluations and classroom observations are especially important given the newly implemented 3-year appointment for long-term adjuncts.

  • See Frequently Asked Questions regarding Teaching Adjunct Evaluations and Observations.
    https://www.qc.cuny.edu/about/administration/Provost/Policies/Documents/Frequently%20Asked%20Questions%20about%20Adjunct%20Evaluations%20and%20Observations.pdf

• For More Information about these 3-year Appointment, see:

Immigration and Work Authorization

• Foreign nationals must have appropriate work authorization in place before the beginning of their first semester.
• New hires who are in the country on a visa or who are outside of the country and need a visa should immediately be directed to the General Counsel once they have accepted a position.
• If you are seeking to make any changes to the terms of employment of a faculty member on a work visa (including, but not limited to, a change in title), please reach out to General Counsel. The College may need to file an amended petition before such change takes place.
FERPA

• A student’s education information is protected by federal law (the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, or FERPA).

• In general, a student’s consent is required prior to sharing certain information contained in College records, but a number of exceptions apply.

• If you have questions about sharing such information, please contact the General Counsel and review CUNY’s FERPA Guidelines.

Here is a link to CUNY’s FERPA Guidelines: http://www2.cuny.edu/wp-content/uploads/sites/4/page-assets/about/administration/offices/legal-affairs/Guidelines-for-implementation-of-the-Student-Records-Access-FERPA.pdf
Contracting and Purchasing Authority

If you need a good or service, you must reach out to the Queens College Procurement Office.

They are responsible for procuring all goods and services, and signing purchase orders and contracts on behalf of the College, including academic departments. Whether using tax-levy or soft funds, you must reach out to Procurement.

You can always reach out to Procurement if you have any doubts or questions.

The College’s Procurement page can be found at: http://www.qc.cuny.edu/about/business/purchasing/Pages/default.aspx
There are schematics that explain workload for Full-Time and Part-Time (Adjunct) Faculty. You can seek a waivers by going to Provost’s Office. President grants or denies.

Full-Time Faculty – http://www.qc.cuny.edu/about/administration/Provost/Policies/Documents/Multiple%20Position%20Full%20Time%20Faculty.pdf

*Full-time faculty workload can be averaged over three years.

Part-Time (Adjunct) Faculty-http://www.qc.cuny.edu/about/administration/Provost/Policies/Documents/Adjunct%20Workload.pdf

Multiple Position Policy – Allows faculty to work seven hours outside of CUNY per week during Academic Year. Please refer to this policy when reviewing and approving multiple position forms for Full-Time Faculty.
http://www.qc.cuny.edu/about/administration/Provost/Policies/Documents/Statement%20of%20Policy%20on%20Multiple%20Position%20Memo%207%2029%2014%20Attachment%201.pdf
Multiple Position for Non-Instructional Staff – Must have form completed for non-instructional staff (HEOS or CLTs) who seek to engage in teaching and/or non-teaching assignment in addition to their regular full-time assignment.
https://goo.gl/forms/3fILrl2r2d9Y22bH3

Such assignment should be for no more than three contact hours per week for teaching assignments and six hours for non-teaching assignments.

If additional hours are sought, you must seek a waiver from Provost who will make request to President.
Student Trips

We value experiences beyond the classroom and want to ensure the safety of everyone involved.

If planning off-campus activities, please consult the various CUNY Travel Guidelines -- International and Domestic.

CUNY recently adopted new policy that suggests even when travel involves no overnight stay & is within the five boroughs using public transportation & does not involve high-risk activities, the Off-Campus Activity Participation, Waiver, and Emergency Contact Form should still be completed.
Medical Issues and Leaves Generally

If a staff or faculty member states he/she is having issues based on a medical condition, refer him/her to Lee Kelly, Director of Human Resources, and do not ask follow-up questions about the condition.

They may need an accommodation - a standing desk or special chair or they may need take a leave.

HR can inquire and will communicate with you. Granting an accommodation is a collaborative process with HR talking with department and faculty or staff.
Medical Issues and Leaves Generally

If a medical leave is granted, it may impact the tenure clock.

For example, in certain circumstances, Paid Parental Leave allows for a faculty member to opt for an additional year before being considered for tenure. http://www2.cuny.edu/wp-content/uploads/sites/4/page-assets/about/administration/offices/hr/benefits/PPLeavepolicyandforms06172013.pdf

There are many other types of leaves that can be granted depending on the particular circumstance. If you have any questions, talk with your Dean or the Provost Office or Human Resources.
New York State ethics laws and regulations apply to all CUNY employees.

Department chairpersons and academic program directors/ coordinators are considered “Policymakers” under NYS ethics laws and are required to undergo training and file financial disclosure statements. These requirements may apply to other faculty and staff.

If you have not attended an ethics training, you will be invited to one soon.

CUNY’s Ethics Guidelines can be found at:
http://www2.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/legal-affairs/ethics/
Title IX - Sexual Harassment, Gender-based Harassment, and Sexual Violence

Allegations of sexual misconduct (including including sexual harassment, gender-based harassment, and sexual violence) are serious.

Some faculty and staff in academic departments are deemed “responsible” employees and are required to report allegations of sexual misconduct. You are “responsible” employees as department chairpersons. Consequently, you cannot promise to keep what you are told is a secret.

It is best practice to inform a student at the beginning of a discussion about your legal obligation to report certain information. You can explain that if a student wants to talk to someone in confidence, the student should go to the Counseling Center. Counselors cannot report what students tell them.
Other responsible employees include staff supervising off-campus trips, advisors to student groups, and academic advisors. See CUNY’s Policy on Sexual Misconduct (p. 17).

Other faculty and staff in academic departments are generally encouraged to report allegations of sexual misconduct.

Allegations of sexual misconduct should be reported to the College Title IX Coordinator – Cynthia Rountree. Students can also go to Jennifer Jarvis in Student Affairs or to Public Safety.
Title IX - Sexual Harassment, Gender-based Harassment, and Sexual Violence

If a faculty or staff member wants to talk to someone in confidence, refer them to Deer Oaks, our Employee Assistance Program:

It is a lot, BUT...

• Call if you have any questions
• There are no stupid questions.
• Many people are willing and able to give you advice.
