Academic II - Room 170

1. The Chairman, Eugene Fontinell, called the meeting to order at 3:40 p.m.
2. Approval of Minutes of April 15, and April 29, 1971.

Minutes of April 29, No. 5 - Report of the Graduate Curriculum Committee
(S. Axelrad) - add "g" to read:

MOTION: Duly made, seconded and passed:

"To table resolution on 45 credit M.A. degree."

3. MOTION: Adopted agenda, seconded and passed.
4. Recruitment Report - Campus Life Committee - MAJORITY REPORT:

MOTION: Duly made (Warren) and seconded - delete last sentence from No. I, Premises A: "On-campus recruitment includes as well the acts of providing information on employment opportunities or referrals of individuals to particular jobs."

and add:

"Any organization that is not an official arm of the College, may invite speakers from any outside organization to speak on job opportunities. But, student organizations may not serve as surrogates for the College in recruitment."

Point of order (Speidel):

"Is amendment considered contrary to the main thrust?"

Chair: Amendment is still consistent with the Report.

Procedural Motion - Duly made and failed:

"To stop consideration of this amendment."

MOTION: Duly made (Syrett), seconded and passed:

"To table Warren's amendment."

MOTION: Duly made (Stein), seconded and passed:

"To close off debate on Majority Report."

MOTION: Duly made (Nussdorf), seconded and passed:

"To have a roll-call vote."

Roll-call vote on Majority Report - 56 Against - 18 For. (see attachment)

ACADEMIC SENATE - MINUTES, MAY 20, 1971

5. Recruitment Report - Campus Life Committee - MINORITY REPORT:

MOTION: Duly made (Mansfield):

"To adopt Minority Report."

MOTION: Duly made (Stein) for amendment by substitution as follows:

"Effective immediately, the Placement Bureau shall schedule such interviews and career information services as it deems appropriate to the needs of the student body."

(Warren) amendment to Stein's amendment:

"That Queens College shall permit on-campus recruitment except for military and war-related recruitment. War-related recruitment shall be defined as the 200 largest corporations, having defense contracts, and their subsidiaries."

Chair: Warren's amendment is not proper amendment to Stein's.

(Molesworth) appealed the ruling of the Chair.

Deputy Chairman (Stahl) assumed the Chair.

Chair is upheld.

MOTION: Duly made, seconded and failed:

"To table Stein's amendment."

Roll-call vote on Stein's amendment: 34 For - 32 Against. (see attachment)
