

MEETING & EXCEEDING NATIONAL STANDARDS IN FCS TEACHER EDUCATION

Our graduate programs in Family & Consumer Sciences education meet and exceed the national standards for Family and Consumer Sciences Education. Explore where our course offerings bridge to these standards.

STANDARD 1

CAREER, COMMUNITY, AND FAMILY CONNECTIONS

Analyze family, community, and work interrelationships; investigate career paths through workbased learning activities; examine family and consumer sciences careers in education and human services, hospitality and food production, and visual arts and design; develop employability skills and other 21st century skills; apply career decision making and transitioning processes; and implement service learning.

RELATED CONTENT COURSES OFFERED AT QC

742: Child Study Lab in Family and Consumer Sciences.

745: The Child in the Family

749: Home & Family Living

782VT: Prenatal & Infant Development

781/782VT: Human Development

781VT: Career Skills for the 21st Century

781VT: Social Entrepreneurship in Family & Consumer Sciences

STANDARD 2

2 CONSUMER ECONOMICS AND FAMILY RESOURCES

Use local and global resources responsibly to address the diverse needs and goals of individuals, families, and communities worldwide in family and consumer sciences areas such as resource management, consumer economics, financial literacy, living environments, and textiles and apparel.

RELATED CONTENT COURSES OFFERED AT QC

FNES 751: Resources for Consumer Education

FNES 781: Personal Finance in Family & Consumer Sciences

FNES 728: New Trends in Textiles and Apparel

755: Sustainability Practices in FCS

781VT: Social Entrepreneurship in Family & Consumer Sciences

782VT: Hand Sewing Skills & Projects in FCS

STANDARD 3

FAMILY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Apply culturally responsive principles of human development and interpersonal and family relationships to strengthen individuals and families across the lifespan in contexts such as parenting, care giving, and the workplace.

RELATED CONTENT COURSES OFFERED AT QC

742: Child Study Lab in Family and Consumer Sciences.

745: The Child in the Family

749: Home & Family Living

782VT: Prenatal & Infant Development

781/782VT: Human Development

STANDARD 4

4 FOOD AND NUTRITION

Promote nutrition science and food literacy practices and develop food preparation and production skills in personal and professional settings that enhance individual and family well being across the lifespan and address related concerns in a global society.

RELATED CONTENT COURSES OFFERED AT QC

760: Food Trends and Issues
782VT: Applied Science of Baking in Family & Consumer Sciences
782VT: Global & Gourmet Foods

STANDARD 5

5 WELLNESS

Utilize the practical reasoning process to make informed decisions and apply appropriate preventative and protective strategies to achieve optimal quality of life including social and emotional well-being for individuals, families, and communities.

RELATED CONTENT COURSES OFFERED AT QC

FNES 751: Resources for Consumer Education

Advanced Certificate:

FNES 574

STANDARD 6

CAREER AND TECHNICAL STUDENT ORGANIZATION INTEGRATION*

Integrate the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) co-curricular student organization into the program to foster students' academic growth, apply family and consumer sciences content, develop leadership skills, engage in community service learning, and make career and content connections.

RELATED COURSES OFFERED AT QC

Advanced Certificate

FNES 538

STANDARD 7

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

Develop, justify, and implement course curricula in programs of study supported by research and theory that address perennial and evolving family, career, and community issues; reflect the critical, integrative nature of family and consumer sciences; integrate core academic areas; and reflect high quality career and technical education practices.

RELATED COURSES OFFERED AT QC

Advanced Certificate Courses

FNES 538

FNES 563

FNES 637

MS Ed, FCS Courses

FNES 748

All content courses integrate instruction on bridging content to classroom instruction.

STANDARD 8

INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES AND RESOURCES

Facilitate students' critical literacy and problem solving in family and consumer sciences through varied instructional strategies and technologies by experiences modeling responsible management of resources in schools, communities, and the workplace.

RELATED COURSES OFFERED AT QC

Advanced Certificate Courses

FNES 538

FNES 563

FNES 637

MS Ed, FCS Courses

FNES 748

FNES 643

FNES 747

All content courses integrate instruction on bridging content to classroom instruction.

STANDARD 9

LABORATORY MANAGEMENT

Develop, implement, and demonstrate laboratory policies and procedures based on current industry standards specific to the focus of the course to ensure both the safety of students and clients, and sustainability of products and the environment.

RELATED CONTENT COURSES OFFERED AT QC

760: Food Trends and Issues
782VT: Applied Science of Baking in Family & Consumer Sciences
782VT: Global & Gourmet Foods
755: Sustainability Practices in FCS

STANDARD 10

STUDENT AND PROGRAM ASSESSMENT

Collect student and program data to assess, evaluate, and improve student learning and family and consumer sciences programs using evidence-based criteria, standards, and authentic processes.

RELATED COURSES OFFERED AT QC

MS Ed, FCS Courses

FNES 731

FNES 732

STANDARD 11

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Create and implement a safe, supportive, and culturally responsive learning environment that shows sensitivity to diverse needs, values, and characteristics of students, families, and communities.

RELATED COURSES OFFERED AT QC

Advanced Certificate

FNES 538

FNES 563

FNES 637

FNES 574

MS Ed, FCS Courses

FNES 643

STANDARD 12

12 PROFESSIONALISM

Engage in ethical professional practice based on the history, philosophy, and family and consumer sciences Body of Knowledge, and relationship to career and technical education through civic engagement, advocacy, collaboration with other professionals, recruitment and mentoring of prospective and new professionals, and ongoing professional development.

RELATED COURSES OFFERED AT QC

Advanced Certificate

FNES 538

FNES 563

FNES 637

FNES 574

MS Ed, FCS Courses

FNES 643

FNES 731

FNES 732

STANDARDS

FULL STANDARDS ARE AVAILABLE HERE