MUSICAL PRESENTATION

Ricardo “Rick” L. Cortez, CIMA ’72 (Math)

Co-CEO, Broadmark Asset Management LLC

Ricardo L. Cortez is the co-chief executive officer of Broadmark Asset Management. He is primarily responsible for business development as well as management of the firm’s sales and marketing efforts. As co-CEO, Cortez shares in the oversight of the firm’s business operations. Additionally, he is a member of the investment team and serves as the firm’s chief risk officer.

Cortez joined Broadmark in 2009 as president of global distribution and was named co-CEO in 2013. Prior to Broadmark, he was president of the private client group at Torrey Associates, LLC. He has held roles including vice president at Goldman Sachs as a product manager for the firm’s global multi-manager strategies program, and senior vice president at Prudential Investments overseeing product development and sales for the investment management services division.

He is an adjunct faculty member at Harvard University and has been a guest lecturer on investment policy and hedge funds at the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. Since 2014, he has volunteered his time and expertise to American Corporate Partners helping military veterans make the transition to the private sector through mentor-mentee programs. He also serves as an executive education mentor for the Money Management Institute.

INTERESTS

Cortez is a trained classical guitarist and performed on tours in the 1970s. Although he did not pursue music as a career, Cortez continues to play for pleasure and is a collector of guitars. Cortez also has an interest in physics and philosophy. He wrote an essay highlighting his principles which was referenced in the 2019 book by space philosopher and author Frank White called The Cosma Hypothesis: Implications of the Overview Effect. Cortez is also a long-time tennis fan.

EDUCATION

Queens College, BA 1972, cum laude (Math)
The Wharton School, Certificate in Investment Management Analyst (CIMA) 1993

QC NOTES

Cortez joined the QC Business Advisory Board in 2009. He led the Advisory Board as chairman beginning in 2014. He has since stepped down as chairman but continues to serve on the Board. Since 2012, Cortez has returned to campus multiple times as a guest lecturer in the Risk Management graduate program at QC.
