

CUNY QC Research Updates

August 26, 2019

Training Workshop for NIH Grant Application. John Jay College and Provost Yi Li extend an invitation to QC faculty to attend a two day workshop designed to train faculty to write more successful NIH grant applications. The workshop is free of charge and will take place on October 24-25. To register, send email to Rachel Friedman at rfriedman@jjay.cuny.edu. More information can be found at IMERS Flyer - Oct 24-25.pdf

If anyone has the interest but is unable to make it, a similar workshop is held at the University of Kentucky with all expenses covered. Let me know if any question.

Grant Announcement Letter (GAL) The July 2019 edition of the Grant Announcement Letter from the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP) was sent out earlier from ORSP and is available at GAL-July19.pdf

ACLS Competitions and Deadlines The American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) is one of the leading private institutions supporting scholars in the humanities and related social sciences at the doctoral and postdoctoral levels. It has just provided an updated list of competitions and deadlines for the 2019-20 competitions. The online fellowship and grant administration (OFA) system is now open for applications to these programs. More information is available at

<https://www.acls.org/Fellowship-and-Grant-Programs/Competitions-and-Deadlines>

Proposal Peer Review Service by RF-APPS The Proposal Proposal Peer Review service, provided by the Office of Award Pre-Proposal Support (APPS) of CUNY Research Foundation, has been upgraded and expanded. This is a great service aimed at strengthening the competitiveness of external proposals from our colleagues. More information can be found in the Message from Dr. John Tsapogas

Feedback for Research Your feedback is appreciated on our webform at

Your Feedback on Research

(or you can copy and paste <https://forms.gle/qygtrL8SemiJU3399> to your web browser)

QC researchers should sign up to receive the newsletter automatically for their own information (in addition to your invitation to submit for coverage of their work).