What Grants Are Available?

There are more grant opportunities available in your field than you may think! Please contact our office with any and all questions about interests or concerns pertaining to your field and we will work together to facilitate these great opportunities.

Do Not See Opportunities in Your Field?

This newsletter is only the tip of the iceberg. There are plenty of funding opportunities waiting to be utilized. Simply visit the "Funding Opportunities" section of our website or contact us with keywords that we can then use to specifically find the right grant for you.

OCTOBER

U.S. Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences Broad Agency Announcement for Basic, Applied, and Advanced Research (ARI)

Scope:

Provide a systematic expansion and application of knowledge to design and develop useful strategies, techniques, methods, tests, or measures that provide the means to meet a recognized and specific Army need. Applied Research precedes specific technology investigations or development and should have high potential to transition into advanced technology.

Deadline:

Proposals will be accepted through 11:59 PM Eastern Daylight Time on April 29, 2023.

Funds:

See solicitation for more details.

Areas:

The ARI Advanced Technology Development program includes the development of technologies, components, or prototypes that can be tested in field experiments and/or simulated environments. Projects in this category have a direct relevance to identified military needs. These projects should demonstrate the general military utility or cost reduction potential of technology in the areas of personnel selection, assignment, and retention; advanced data analytics and models applied to talent management; development of higher-order competencies for Soldiers and Leaders; holistic assessment of unit readiness; and team and unit mission effectiveness. These projects should be focused on a more direct operational benefit and, if successful, the technology should be available for transition.

Community Action Grant Application (AAUW)

Scope:

Address issues related to the needs of women and girls or that provide information to educate and benefit the public on those issues.

Deadline:

December 1, 2019

Deadline for online submission of application and supporting documents

April 15, 2020

Notification of decisions emailed to applicants. AAUW is not able to honor requests for earlier notification.

July 1, 2020–June 30, 2021

One-year grant period

July 1, 2020–June 30, 2022

Two-year grant period

Funds:

One-Year Grant: $2,000–$7,000 over One Year

Two-Year Grant: $5,000–$10,000 over Two Years

Areas:

Encourages proposals for projects that use innovative approaches to address local community needs or build links among community partners and build partnerships between schools and community organizations. The following criteria apply to the selection of Community Action Grants: Relevance of the proposed project to the mission of AAUW, strength of the project rationale, clarity and creativity of the project design, sustainability/impact of the project, feasibility of the project, strength of the evaluation plan, strength of the dissemination plan, overall quality of the proposal.

OCTOBER

Health Promotion among Racial and Ethnic Minority Males (R01)

Scope:

To stimulate and expand research in the health of minority men.

Deadline:

Nov. 5, 2019

Funds:

See solicitation for more details.

Areas:

Specifically, this initiative is intended to: 1) enhance our understanding of the numerous factors (e.g., sociodemographic, community, societal, personal) influencing the health promoting behaviors of racial and ethnic minority males across the life cycle, and 2) encourage applications focusing on the development and testing of culturally and linguistically appropriate health-promoting interventions designed to reduce health disparities among racially and ethnically diverse males age 18 and older.

Global Initiatives Grants (Wenner-Gren Foundation)

Scope:

Funds a small number of one-time projects designed to meet a need not addressed by our other programs that are innovative, collaborative initiatives that build capacity in anthropology.

Deadline:

May 15, 2020

Funds:

$5,000-$20,000

Areas:

We look for projects in which a small amount of money can have a wide and lasting impact in creating the conditions that allow the discipline to survive and thrive. Applicants of any nationality or country of residence may apply. Applicants must have a PhD in anthropology at the time of application and be affiliated with a school or organization that can carry forward the lessons learned through the project. We prioritize applications from individuals based in countries, regions, and communities where anthropology is disadvantaged or under threat.

OCTOBER

Small Research Grant Program (APSA)

Scope:

Supports research in all fields of political science. The intent of these grants is to provide funding opportunities for research conducted by political scientists in non-tenure track or contingent positions who are ineligible for departmental funding and political science faculty of all ranks who are employed in departments that do not grant PhDs.

Deadline:

April 15, 2020

Funds:

Individual grants may not exceed $2,500 and are not renewable.

Areas:

Funds may be used for such research activities as travel to archives, travel to conduct interviews, administration and coding of instruments, research assistance, and purchase of datasets. Funds may be used by scholars with disabilities for auxiliary devices or services uniquely needed for carrying out the research. While this list is merely illustrative, certain research activities are specifically excluded from funding; these include travel to professional meetings, secretarial costs except for preparation of the final manuscripts for publication, and salary support for the principal investigator. Overhead or indirect costs are not allowable expenses.

Franklin Research Grants

Scope:

To help meet the costs of travel to libraries and archives for research purposes; the purchase of microfilm, photocopies, or equivalent research materials; the costs associated with fieldwork; or laboratory research expenses.

Deadline:

December 2, 2019, for a March 2020 decision for work in April 2020 through January 2021

Funds:

Up to a maximum of $6,000. Grants are not retroactive.

Areas:

Applicants are expected to have a doctorate or to have published work of doctoral character and quality. Ph.D. candidates are not eligible to apply, but the Society is particularly interested in supporting the work of young scholars who have recently received the doctorate. Independent scholars and faculty members at all four-year and two-year research and non-research institutions are welcome to apply provided that all eligibility guidelines are met. American citizens and residents of the United States may use their Franklin awards at home or abroad. Foreign nationals not affiliated with a U.S. institution must use their Franklin awards for research in the United States. Applicants who have previously received a Franklin grant may reapply after an interval of two years.

OCTOBER

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships

Scope:

Awarded for one academic year of advanced level language study in East or Southeast Asia. Eligible languages are Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Burmese, Indonesian, Khmer, Thai, and Vietnamese.

Deadline:

December 30, 2019

Funds:

Most awards fall within the range of $15,000 to $40,000 per year for one or two years.

Areas:

Questions that interest the foundation concern violence and aggression in relation to social change, intergroup conflict, war, terrorism, crime, and family relationships, among other subjects. Research with no relevance to understanding human problems will not be supported, nor will proposals to investigate urgent social problems where the foundation cannot be assured that useful, sound research can be done. Priority will also be given to areas and methodologies not receiving adequate attention and support from other funding sources.

MAP Grant

Scope:

Supports contemporary artists, of all abilities and backgrounds, whose work challenges canon and convention and, by extension, ableist, cis, hetero-normative, Western cultural dominance. MAP invests in artistic production as the critical foundation of imagining, and ultimately co-creating, a more equitable and vibrant society.

Deadline:

Apply via Submittable through November 25, 2019 7 pm ET. Our full grant cycle calendar is as follows:

OCTOBER 7 – OCTOBER 31, 2019: Proposal draft support is available on a first-come, first-served basis

OCTOBER 21, 2019: Submittable, MAP's grant application platform, is open for submissions

NOVEMBER 25, 2019: Grant application closes at 7:00 p.m. EST

MARCH 2-6, 2020: Reviews 1 & 2 email notifications

APRIL 6-10, 2020: Reviews 3 & 4 email notifications

JULY 1, 2020 – JUNE 30, 2022: Funds available for 2020 grantees

Funds:

$1 million annually, to up to 45 projects in the range of $10,000–$45,000 per grant.

Areas:

The grant supports original live performance projects that embody a spirit of deep inquiry, particularly works created by artists who question, disrupt, complicate, and challenge inherited notions of social and cultural hierarchy across the United States. Funded projects address these concerns through the processes of creating and distributing live performance to the public, and/or through the content and themes of the work itself. MAP is committed to intersectional anti-racism, and does not support cultural appropriation or oppressive project language, structures, or content. The program pursues its mission by annually welcoming applications for new live performance projects. Each year, MAP hires a different cohort of peer reviewers who recommend the projects they believe most align with MAP's goals through a rigorous, facilitated review process.

OCTOBER

Collaborative Research (NEH)

Scope:

To support groups of two or more scholars seeking to increase humanistic knowledge through research, convenings and collaborative publication.

Deadline:

Dec. 4, 2019

Funds:

Up to 20 awards of up to $250,000.

Areas:

The program allows projects in a single field of study or those conducting interdisciplinary work. Projects that include partnerships with researchers from the natural and social sciences are encouraged, but projects must remain firmly rooted in the humanities and must employ humanistic methods.

Building capacity in STEM education research (NSF)

Scope:

To support projects that build individuals' capacity to carry out high-quality science, technology, engineering and mathematics education research that will enhance the nation's STEM education enterprise and broaden the pool of researchers that can conduct fundamental research in STEM learning and learning environments, broadening participation in STEM fields, and STEM workforce development.

Deadline:

June 5, 2020

Funds:

$12 million total for up to 26 awards for projects of up to five years in length. See the announcement for complete details.

Areas:

Supports three types of projects designed to build individuals' capacity to carry out high-quality fundamental (foundational and early-stage or exploratory) education research in science, technology, engineering and mathematics: Individual Investigator Development in STEM Education Research from two categories of individual investigators: early-career investigators and midcareer investigators; Institutes in Research Methods to support field-initiated institutes that provide participants with training in up-to-date applications of computational, quantitative, qualitative and evaluative research methods useful to STEM education researchers; and workshops (relating to the competition goals are also invited).
