

Louis Armstrong Summer Teaching

INSTITUTE

LOUIS
ARMSTRONG
EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

DAYS: JULY 21 THROUGH JULY 25, 2025

TIMES: 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

LOCATION: The Louis
Armstrong Center,
34-47 107th St,
Queens, NY 11368

Queens College
65-30 Kissena
Blvd.
Flushing, NY 11367

About the Institute

The Louis Armstrong Educational Foundation and the Queens College School of Education are proud to announce their second annual Institute for secondary educators. Participants will be immersed in the life and legacy of this legendary artist through the newly digitized Armstrong Archives at the Louis Armstrong House Museum in Corona, Queens, and work with curriculum experts.

Condensed Agenda

- Monday "Armstrong: His Life, His Values, and His Music"
- Tuesday "The Real Ambassador: Louis and Cultural Exchange"
- Wednesday "Black and Blue: Armstrong and the Civil Rights Movement"
- Thursday/Friday "A Story of My Own" Designing ways to implement the Life and Legacy of Louis Armstrong into your teaching practice.

What to Expect

The week will be filled with musical exploration, collaborative learning, and innovative teaching strategies. By the end of the week, educators will leave with practical lesson plans that they can integrate into their History, English, and Arts curricula.

Our Goal

Our ultimate aim is to bridge individual classroom practices with the rich legacy of Louis Armstrong, one of America's first Pop Icons and Diplomatic Titans.

We look forward to welcoming you to this transformative experience!

QUEENS COLLEGE

School of Education

