Required forms of proof and other relevant documentation must accompany this form in order that an accurate residency determination may be rendered. Under no circumstances will this form be considered unless all applicable questions have been answered.

Qualifying For the Senior College Resident Tuition Rate.

In general, to qualify for the resident tuition rate at a senior college based on residence in the state of New York, a student must:

- Be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident or in a qualifying immigration status (see section below regarding qualifying immigration statuses); AND
- Have continuously maintained his/her principal place of abode in the State of New York for a period of at least twelve (12) consecutive months immediately preceding the first day of classes; AND
- Have a bona fide intention of living in New York permanently.

Rules Relating to Establishing Residence in New York

- Generally, a dependent student's state of residency is considered the same as that of his or her custodial parent(s) or legal guardians.
- The legal residence of a dependent student whose parents are divorced, separated, or otherwise living apart will be considered New York State if the student resides for 12 months with the parent who is a New York State resident.
- To be considered a New York State resident, a student whose parent(s) or legal guardian(s) reside out of state must present evidence that he or she meets CUNY's residency requirements set forth in above, AND EITHER

(a) that he/she is financially independent from his/her parents. Factors taken into account in determining financial independence include, but are not limited to: whether the student is taken as a dependent on parents' federal and state income tax returns; whether the student is employed and the amount the student earned relative to expenses; the extent of financial support received by the student from parents or guardians; and other sources of student income OR

(b) that he/she, despite being dependent on out-of-state parents(s) or legal guardian(s), has changed his/her domicile, i.e. the place that he/she has a bona fide intention of living permanently, to New York State. Such a showing must be made by clear and convincing evidence. Students who claim that New York is their domicile are expected to have a New York State driver's license or New York State issued identification card dated a minimum of twelve (12) months prior to the start of the semester. In addition, a student is expected to submit documentary evidence indicating he/she has changed his/her domicile to New York, such as the following:

1. evidence that the student has filed a New York State resident income tax return for the previous calendar year;
2. evidence that the student resided in the State of New York for a significant period of time for other than-educational purposes prior to attending CUNY; evidence that the student resides in property owned by the student or his/her parent(s) or legal guardian(s) in the State of New York;
3. evidence showing that the student uses his/her New York address as his/her sole address of record for all purposes including on health and auto insurance records, bank accounts, tax records, loan and scholarship records, school records, military records, leases and similar kinds of documents.

Students aged 24 and older are considered independent and are not deemed to have the same state of residency as their parent(s)

Students under the Age of 18

If the student has a legal guardian other than his/her parents, or his/her parents are separated or divorced, a copy of the legal guardianship papers or court order indicating legal custodianship must be submitted.

Required Documentation which must accompany the Residency Form

The student must submit two items "a" through "n" (Note: All items must document proof of residency for the 12 month period immediately preceding the first day of classes. Documents in the same category covering the first and last months of the previous twelve month period are acceptable provided that they show the student living at the same address.)

may be substituted. The "Alternate Lease Statement" must be completed and notarized by both the person whose name appears on the lease/contract and the student. The person whose name appears on the lease/contract must also submit proof (i.e., lease, telephone, utility or similar type bills) of residency at his/her current address for the previous 12 months.
