

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

The endless opportunities are in front of you!
Take this time to celebrate yourself, for the work and sacrifice you dedicated the last four years. Ready yourself for your next accomplishment, because they will be piling on more and more.

-Antonio '20

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Congrats! You are officially part of a special family. I hope you all fulfill the goals you have set for yourselves. Always remember you're still lifelong learners. Use your network and you'll make it.

-Raveen K. '19

”

“

Do not overthink your assignments and completing the degree. Be present!

-Maliha L. '21

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Do an internship! They help you decide what you're interested in and boosts your resume. Stay connected, networking is your best friend. Drink water, have fun and have hobbies. Congrats!

-Kennedy H. '22

“

Make as many friends as you can. Join groups, clubs, and build projects.

-Jack Wang '21

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Keep going, you got this! Be proud of yourself and how far you've come and know that you have all the power and knowledge and resilience to do everything you've dreamed. Be open to life, don't be afraid of pivot and life changes, and take the time to discover who you are and what makes you happy. Cheers and congratulations!

-Neo I. '18, '19, '20

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Congrats on making it through college. Keep an eye out for opportunities and con-nections to other people. Also remember that your next job may have nothing to do with your major.

-Jan B. '19

“

Congrats! Always be strong, Always believe in yourself, Always love yourself.

-Yuxin G. '20

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Network as early and as often as possible! The people you know professionally can become great friends, and some of those friends can lead to future careers/ business opportunities!

-Marc P. '19

”

“

Good luck! Always look up, things will work out in the end. Enjoy!

-Edward W. '19

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

The best advice I could give is to focus on networking and to try finding an industry you'd like before searching for a career. Retain connections and make new ones as you can. You never know who can help you with your career or when.

-Luis I. '21

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Take your time and enjoy the journey. Do the best that you can to advance your career, but don't over-compensate. Make sure to put effort into your hobbies. It will go a long way!

-Javendean N. '23

”

“

Take it easy. Don't worry, everything will be fine. You're doing great.

-Mozamil M. '21

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

It's okay to make mistakes—learn from them. It's okay to reflect, reengage and come back stronger. Rejection is redirection to excelling in your next steps. Be bold and courageous.

Delisa M. '18

”

“

Good luck with landing your first entry-level job! You got this.

-Xiao M. J. '23

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Where you start often doesn't lead to where you think—don't put too much pressure in figuring out your major, career choice and extracurriculars. Just do what you are naturally drawn to, and that will help you answer more questions sooner. You got this!

-Tsipora S. '22

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Congrats on completing your degree and milestone. I wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

-Tiffany B. '21

”

“

Join organizations that have people in similar majors or interests.

-Brian R. '24

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Try some career counseling to understand what you want to do instead of not knowing. Things will turn out all right.

-Xian Z. '21

“

Good luck! Things always have a way of working themselves out. Just have a little bit of faith.

-Daniel D. '18

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Congrats on graduating and completing a step towards your future career journey! Keep putting your best foot forward no matter the ups and downs. Try to find things you are passionate about and don't compromise your mental health!

-Sophia N. '23

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Time management is key.
Limit your socials (if you have one). Be intentional about the company you keep. Be cognizant of your mental health!

-Safiya S. '17

“

Don't be afraid of starting over... I got a job in a different field, you can too!

-Aldair C. '19

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

It is okay to be unsure of what you want to do in life. Remember to trust yourself, try everything and detach from the outcome. You are on your own path.

-Joseph L. '23

“

Join organizations that have people in similar majors or interests.

-Brian R. '24

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

My advice would be to not be afraid of exploring. You don't need to have everything planned or answered, and things may change as you move through your life. Just take the next natural step, be open to life, and know that you'll figure it out and have a better path than you can even imagine!

-Neophytos I. '18, '19, '20

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Have faith in the process and the results. Positive and negative things will happen but the goal is to stay on the course.

-Antonio P. '21

“

Never stop learning.
Keep up the good work and stay curious.

-Carlos D. R. '16

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Never give up and keep moving forward. Also, do what you enjoy because it won't ever feel like you are working. Best of luck!

-Maritza M. '19

“

Your dream job is out there, so don't be afraid to quit and start somewhere new.

-Kelly M. '20

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Congratulations on making it to the end! This is an exciting time to feel proud of your achievements. My advice would be to apply to as many internships as possible to increase experience and keep networking.

-Chelsea B. '18

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

You are great! Take things one at a time and allow things to digest, there is no rush! You are already successful, and you will be even better with grace!

-Shanae M. '18

”

“

Good luck with landing your first entry-level job! You got this.

-Xiao M. J. '23

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

We are very proud of your academic achievements. Never stop learning. Be a leader, and support others. Be the best you can be!

-Betsy G. '19

“

Best of luck and always keep learning and striving for success! Always stay positive!

-Kevin G. I. '16

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

You might not know what to do after college, but it is all right. You will explore many options before you find what you love. It is going to be a different world after graduation, but if you manage your time, everything will be alright!

-Lisa Z. '21

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Coming from someone that took a while to figure out their path— get into the industry you want early on. Develop your skills and don't give up!

-Roland B. '20

“

Take advantage of any free programs that your school or any big company offers.

-Calvin V. '20

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Keep in contact with your professor. It is important because you never know when or if you'll need that referral, even if your career path seems solid.

-Franklin M. '21

“

Definitely look into using internships as an entryway into an industry of your choice.

-Gustavo E. '22

”

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

I highly recommend networking with as many people as possible while you're still in school. Apply to as many programs and internships as possible. Make sure to be friends with people at these internships and programs. Job hunting is hard and a lot of people (like me) got a job from a connection. Get those referrals!

-Aracely M. '23

”

GOLD'n Wisdom & Wishes

“

Be very active outside of classes (i.e, internships, projects, clubs, case studies, and certifications) especially during summer or winter break.

-Lauren R. '25

“

Don't say no to any opportunity that comes your way, it could benefit you in unexpected ways.

- Victoria R. '23

”

”