

PEDAGOGY POP-UPS

Pedagogy Pop-Ups are a space for faculty to engage in peer-based discussion about teaching and learning at Queens College.

Local History and Community Memory in Queens College Classrooms

Wednesday, May 6, 2026

12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. | Kiely Hall 806 and on Zoom

Faculty Presenter: Johnathan Thayer, PhD, MLS (QC School of Information Studies)

Join us for a presentation and discussion on place-based learning through local community history curricula and a local community memory program for Queens College graduate students.

Register Here

Faculty Presenter Bio

Dr. Johnathan Thayer is Associate Professor at the School of Information Studies, Queens College, CUNY, where he is Coordinator of MLS/MA Programs. He teaches classes in archival studies, public history, and community-engaged local history.