

PEDAGOGY POP-UPS

Pedagogy Pop-Ups are a space for faculty to engage in peer-based discussion about teaching and learning at Queens College.

Students Writing in the Archives

Monday, October 19, 2026

12:15 p.m. - 1:15 p.m. | Kiely Hall 806 / Zoom

Faculty Presenter: Lee Norton (English)

Join us for a presentation and discussion on experiential assignments designed to engage students with QC Campus Partners, including the Godwin-Ternbach Museum and the QC Special Collections and Archives.

Register Here

Faculty Presenter Bio

Lee Norton is a Lecturer in the Queens College English department, where he also serves as the internship coordinator for undergraduate majors. As a member of the Ugly Duckling Presse editorial collective, he designs and edits books of poetry, experimental prose, and poetry in translation. He teaches courses in writing, literature, and the practicalities of editorial work.