

Queens College Library, Special Collections and Archives Fellows and Interns Program

Fall 2022-Spring 2023

Sarah Barlow-Ochshorn, Coach Lucille Kyvallos Athletics Records Fellow

Sarah Barlow-Ochshorn processed the Coach Lucille Kyvallos Athletics Records; curated a selection of the materials for display in the Pine Tree Foundation Special Collections exhibit area; and co-executed a Wikipedia Edit-A-Thon on Women and Sports.

Pamela Padilla, Shirley Klein Rare Book and Manuscript Fellow

Pamela Padilla processed music manuscript collections from the Aaron Copland School of Music and Music Library; implemented the "Guidelines for Archival Description of Notated Music"; and solicited quotes from conservators for potential repair of select items from the rare book collection.

Danica Stompór, Freda S. and J. Chester Johnson Civil Rights & Social Justice Archives Fellow

Dani Stompór processed the Queens College GLASA (Gender, Love, and Sexuality Alliance) Journals; hosted a "journal party" program to celebrate the opening of the collection; and processed transcripts for oral histories related to social justice, including interviews with Joan Nestle, founder of the Lesbian Herstory Archive.

Spring 2022

Ellis Ging, Queens College Center for Jewish Studies Archives Fellow

Ellis Ging processed the Vincent Giordano Collection on Romaniote Jews, and uploaded and cataloged over 800 scans from the collection on JSTOR Open Community Collections.

Brendan Enright, Freda S. and J. Chester Johnson Civil Rights & Social Justice Archives Fellow

Brendan Enright processed the Harvey Silver Political Ephemera Collection; digitized and catalogued 100 items from the Art Gatti Papers for upload on JSTOR Open Community Collections; and processed oral history transcripts.

Melissa Lino, Shirley Klein Rare Book and Manuscript Fellow

Melissa Lino housed fragile volumes in custom phase boxes and created a digital exhibit using items from the Juvenile Rare Book Collection.

Fall 2020-Spring 2021

Victoria Fernandez, Freda S. and J. Chester Johnson Civil Rights & Social Justice Archives Fellow

Victoria Fernandez coordinated the Student Help Lived Experience Project, a collaboration with alumni to document civil rights activities of the early to mid-1960s through oral histories, written submissions, and digital collections.

Fall 2020

Kuba Pieczarski, Félix V. Matos Rodríguez Internship

Kuba Pieczarski catalogued and uploaded the Queens College COVID-19 Collection which highlights the experiences of Queens College faculty, staff, students, and alumni during the pandemic.

Fall 2019-Spring 2020

Tomasz Gubernat, Digital Projects Fellow

Tom Gubernat processed collections and helped develop a new Memory Lab for campus and community engagement (funded by the Gladys Krieble Delmas Foundation).

Jeanie Pai, Processing Fellow

Jeanie Pai processed collections and helped develop a new Memory Lab for campus and community engagement (funded by the Gladys Krieble Delmas Foundation).

Reign McConnell, SEEK History Project Intern

Reign McConnell processed archival records and oral history transcripts for the SEEK History Project.

Spring 2019

Max Thorn, Instruction Fellow

Max Thorn partnered with Professor Carol Giardina of the History Department to integrate archival materials and instruction into the class History 392w: America in the 1960s.

Abby Sumner, Processing Fellow

Abby Sumner processed the papers of Leo Kraft, an American composer, teacher, and writer who taught at Queens College from 1947-1989; and published a finding aid for the collection using ArchivesSpace.