

2024-2025 ASSESSMENT PLAN

Department: Hispanic Languages and Literature

Program of Study:

Undergraduate BA Program

(1) Learning Objectives	(2) Justification for Learning Objective	(3) Courses in which Students Engage with the Learning Objective
Language Knowledge Students will develop and demonstrate the following skills in their use of Spanish. In their interactions, they will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">effectively communicate in Spanish with a high rate of accuracy using the present and past tenses in the indicative mood, the present subjunctive, the imperative, and the perfect tenses.incorporate native expressions into everyday speech and expand mastery of Spanish lexicon in order to augment communicative skills.write convincingly and critically on every-day, academic, and semiprofessional topics in Spanish, using a variety of formats, complex syntax, and appropriate lexical choices.read, analyze, and interpret—both from a linguistic and a literary/cultural perspective—written texts in a variety of styles from the past and the present.demonstrate a good command of academic Spanish in different discursive genres.	Students must demonstrate advanced proficiency in Spanish across different areas: from the practical use of the language to a deep understanding of its grammatical structures and its linguistic variations in different contexts within the Hispanic world.	SPAN 112 – Elementary Spanish II SPAN 201 – Spanish for Heritage Speakers SPAN 203 – Intermediate Spanish SPAN 221-222 – Language Workshop SPAN 224 – Grammar SPAN 225 – Composition