

RESTRICTED SPACES POLICY

Restricted Spaces may include but are not limited to:

1. Classrooms and hallways where classrooms are located;
2. The Benjamin S. Rosenthal Library;
3. Faculty and administrative offices;
4. Laboratories and research facilities;
5. Maintenance and storage areas;
6. Staff lounges and break rooms; and
7. Any area marked with signage designating it accessible by only authorized personnel and/or current or prospective students.

Individuals must present valid college identification upon request and may be asked to leave restricted areas if not authorized. Access may be granted to visitors, contractors, or others with prior approval from the relevant college department.

Recording (audio or video) in Restricted Spaces is prohibited without prior written approval from the appropriate college authority. This includes classrooms, offices, and all other restricted areas.
